Hall and Woodhouse is one of the few remaining regional family brewers. My family has brewed our award-winning Dorset ales and offered warm hospitality at our pubs for over 230 years.

As the world changes around us, we try to provide classic English pubs that stand the test of time. Old furniture, old books, flagstones and fires create relaxed and comfortable surroundings while our terraces and gardens provide the perfect backdrop for lazy spring and summer days.

We believe our houses can offer unique settings to stage your meeting or event.
